

Voluntary tools and networking for the EU low carbon agenda.

Energy policies in Italy and the experience of the Covenant of Mayors.

September 9th, 2014 / Hotel PALACE, Bari, Italy

Stakeholder's Workshop – Presentation of the process

8:30-9:00 Registration

9:00-09:15 Welcome and Introduction on Alterenergy Project

Bernardo Notarangelo – Regione Puglia

9:15-9:35 Introduction on Loc SEE project: results achieved and main goals

Daniele Vettorato, EURAC

9:35-10:00 EU climate change acquis relevant to the Balkans

Emma Mitrotta, EURAC

10:00-10:15 Low carbon Policies in the South East Europe linked to the Energy Community Treaty

Massimo La Scala, Politecnico di Bari

10:15-10.45 Overview on Sustainable Energy Action Plans: policy and implementation in Italy

Antonio Lumicisi, Fondazione Ambiente Pulito

Roberto Vaccaro, EURAC

10:45-11:00 Coffee break

The Alterenergy project and the Sustainable Energy planning in Puglia: two cases history:

11:00-11:20 The Alterenergy project: main goals and results achieved.

Claudio Polignano, Regione Puglia

1:20-11:40 The Sustainable Energy planning in Sant'Agata di Puglia

Carlo Gadaleta Caldarola, ARTI Puglia

11:40-12:00 The SEAP of Municipality of Bari

Pasquale Capezzuto, Municipality of Bari

12:00 – 12:40 Industrial case studies from voluntary industrial footprint actions in Italy:

Roberta Ianna, Italian Ministry of the Environment and Protection of Land and Sea: introduction

Fabio Iraldo, Bocconi University

Industrial case 1: Alberto Frausin, Carlsberg Italia

Industrial case 2: Vito Palumbo, Tormaresca S.A.R.L

12:40-13:00 Q/A Session among speakers and stakeholders

Potential synergies between SEAPs and voluntary industrial innovation schemes towards public private initiatives

Co-chairmen

Antonio Lumicisi, Fondazione Ambiente Pulito

Luca Cetara, Italian Ministry for the Environment, Land and Sea/EURAC

Joint buffet lunch 13:00-14:30

14:30-16:00 National Working Group (LocSEE project)

Experts roundtable and workshop's wrap up
Italian policy paper development

Participants:

Luca Cetara (Italian Ministry for the Environment, Land and Sea/EURAC)

Roberta Ianna (Italian Ministry for the Environment, Land and Sea)

Antonio Lumicisi (Ambiente Pulito Foundation)

Roberto Vaccaro (EURAC)

Maria Velardi (ENEA)

Daniele Vettorato (EURAC)

Alyona Zubaryeva (EURAC)

Practicalities

Venue, travel and accomodation

The workshop will take place in the Palace Hotel, Via Francesco Lombardi, 13, Bari, Italy.

Participation

The participation is recommended for specialists in the energy, public policy, urban planning, industrial sector fields;

Language

Due to the practicability the workshop will be held in English and Italian language.

Registration and confirmation

please register online by 3th September 2014 following this link: <https://opinio.eurac.edu/s?s=3925>

Questions? Please contact:

Mrs Alyona Zubaryeva

LocSEE project
Phone: +39 0471 055 619,
E-mail: locsee@eurac.edu

Mrs Chiara Campanile

Alterenergy project manager
Phone: +39.080.540.6424,
E-mail: management@alter-energy.eu